The Hand That First Held Mine (Chinese Edition) Maggie OFarrell

Lexie fell in love with Elis, who wore a yellow shirt and a cyan tie, as a result of an unexpected meet in the country. The naïve, frank and curious Lexie then went to metropolitan London with great passion. With the guidance of Elis and her enthusiasm as well as deep emotion, life in the soho world was happy and colorful. Although her love and career was laughed at, criticized, abused and despised, stubborn Lexie was never beaten. She kept on walking straightforward very proudly and gave birth to her baby without marriage. Her life was changed by her own baby. Still staying in London, the first-time mother Irina was vertiginous. She did not know what happened while she was giving birth to her new baby, and was very surprised as well as scared due to the new born neonate. Her boyfriend Ted was also very vertiginous as well. The parturition reminded him one person he loved when he was a child.
