These laugh-out-loud rhymes about dancing giraffes, a barnyard hullabaloo, commotion in the ocean, and much more are simply irresistible. Children will love hearing the delightful wordplay again and again-and with the repeating phrases and rhyming words, children may soon find themselves "reading" on their own. Just as with Mother Goose, the rhymes build phonics skills (learning that words that are spelled the same sound the same) and the repeating phrases help children learn to recognize often-used words by sight without sounding them out. Featuring bold and colorful illustrations, these six silly books are a collection worth owning.
