Goose Lake L.D Jacobson

The Goose Lake International Music Festival took place near Jackson, Michigan in August of 1970 - a year after Woodstock. The event organizers anticipated 30,000 people... They got over 250,000. Matt and Laura spent the weekend together - two teenagers meeting for the first time and falling in love to the backdrop of music and drugs. Fate, however, pulled them apart... Now, over forty years later, they're drawn back together again to solve a mystery that dates back to that glorious weekend in the sun. Marked with interviews from real-life festival attendees who paint a picture of that magical weekend, join Matt and Laura as they rediscover the wonder of their youth - and each other. Take a trip back in time to Goose Lake...
