As the saying goes, “If Mama ain't happy, ain't nobody happy”, but when your Mama can smell money before it's even been printed, there's no telling what she will do to get her hands on it, just to fulfill her insatiable need to have it all!

Claire Scott is the quintessential gold digger. Whatever she has to do to get one over on her son Kevin, she's willing to do. If that means bombarding him with emails because he's long since cut off ties with her in every other way, then, a Mamas got to do what a Mamas got to do.

In order to keep his mother away from his money, his place of work and his girlfriend, Kevin will need more than his Ivy League education to outrun and outsmart his conniving, manipulative, histrionic mother and her endless supply of mayhem and shenanigans.

What's a son to do when the woman who gave him life now wants to take it all away from him by any means necessary?
