Come Back to Me Julia Rachel Barrett

Sometimes the safest path is to keep people at a distance...especially men. Cara's life has been one nightmare after another. Abused as a child and neglected by her parents, she's quick to blame herself for every cruel thing that happens to her. And then there's James, the only man capable of making her forget her misgivings and learn to love again. James, a young doctor in training, is aware of Cara's history. He's determined to break through her barriers and build a life with her...and fails. Cara runs away in an attempt to reinvent herself and James fears he's lost her for good. When she falls into the hands of a drug dealer and mob boss, life as they know it is about to get a whole lot worse. Can their love withstand the demons of her past and present? Be Warned: violence against heroine, rape of heroine.
