The Christmas List: Imagine reading your own obituary, and then imagine finding out that most people are happy you're gone. When real estate developer James Kier finds himself in this situation, he decides the time has come to change. But after so many years of ruthlessness and selfishness, who will believe he isn't the man that everyone hates? A tale of the season's true meaning, from the best selling author of the Christmas box. It's possible that Santa just won't come if there isn't a new Evans.
From Cradle To Grave: Morgan and Claire have been friends since childhood, but Claire is suffering from severe postpartum depression, and after her new baby's christening, she is arrested for a shocking crime. The evidence against her is damning, but in her heart, Morgan knows that Claire must be innocent. So Morgan launches her own investigation to unravel this dark mystery.
Spinning Forward: When Sydney Webster's husband dies unexpectedly, she suddenly finds herself unemployable and in dire financial straits. Getting no sympathy from her angry twenty something daughter, Sydney takes refuge with an old friend on an island off the Florida coast. It is here that Sydney uncovers her own hidden talents, and where the quirky mysterious and handsome inhabitants help her find a future and a past.
Blood Lines: Texas ranger Sarah Armstrong has her hands full with two high profile cases. A potentially lethal stalker is pursuing a young pop megastar, and even the most sophisticated security can't seem to stop him. And a Houston businesswoman young, rich, and living large has been found dead, an apparent suicide that just doesn't look right. A satisfying entry in a new series from a best selling crime writer.
