Vicky could not be happier. It is only a few days until she marries the love of her life, chivalrous Detective Mitchell Slate. She is excited to be organizing the final touches for the wedding with her sister, Sarah, and her zany Aunt Ida while Mitchell goes fishing overnight for his bachelor party with Sheriff McDonnell, Rex, his father, brother and some other police officers.

Vicky thinks that the worst of her worries is entertaining Mitchell's family, who she is meeting for the first time, and ensuring that Aunt Ida does not turn the wedding into a circus.

But when Vicky is setting up the garden for the wedding and finds a dead body, everything is turned on its head. With Mitchell and the sheriff unreachable and some inexperienced cops investigating the crime, Vicky knows that she has to help solve the murder so her wedding can go ahead.

Will Vicky be able to solve the murder in time and finally get married? Or will her investigating result in the wedding being cancelled?
