Past the Witching Hour (Paranormal Personnel Saga #2) Joanna Mazurkiewicz

Julia is determined to forget about her recent break up and just move on, but this doesn't come easy when she have to deal with her ex-boyfriend's company every day.

When her regional manager Rufus, asks her to attend a networking event she can't wait to break the routine and just have some fun. The same night he disappears and Nathaniel La Caz who was supposed to be in Switzerland interrupts Julia's sales pitch.

Yet again Julia can't control her magic and Nathaniel insists that he wants her back. Her mind screams no, but the flames of desire are instantly rekindled.

Moreover her best friend Ella witnesses a terrible crime and becomes immune to the memory spell. Apart from dealing with kidnapping, knocking out rapists in the dark alley and just getting on with life itself Julia discovers that her regional manager had been kidnapped. The rival agency is ready to take over the contract with La Caz Corporation and Ella wants nothing to do with her.

Soon she is caught between the devil and the deep blue sea.

Can she find happiness with a half vampire when everyone else is against it?
