The Complete Walt Disney World 2016: The Definitive Disney Handbook Julie Neal, Mike Neal
Your best vacation ever. It's easy to have thanks to this unique Disney guide, which combines honest reviews, helpful insight, and hundreds of beautiful color photos into a smartly organized, streamlined handbook on how to have fun that fits easily in your purse or backpack. Everything at Disney is reviewed and rated--every ride, every show, every restaurant, every shop--and when something's not worth your time the author's not afraid to say so.

True insight, thorough detail. A former Walt Disney World concierge supervisor, Julie Neal freely shares her unique insight, offering hundreds of inside tips and secrets, while also tossing in an encyclopedic depth of practical information that you just can't find anywhere else.

An award-winning family guide. The Complete Walt Disney World has won dozens of national and international book awards, including eleven Travel Guide of the Year honors and an Outstanding Family Product award from Disney itself. Features for families include a collection of fun ways to involve your children in the planning of your trip and "fear factor" listings for every ride and show. Children enjoy flipping through the guide's pages with their parents, as its abundance of images makes it easy for even little ones to declare, "Let's do that!"
