The “Let’s reach for the sun” Series consists on a group of novels aimed at increasing our knowledge and understanding of Dr. Edward Bach, Bach flower remedies and his work, limited to Natural Medicine. These books tell, in a brief and entertaining tone, some episodes and historical facts, based on documented archives but treated as to reach both the professional and the novice reader, who enjoys literature and nice fiction pieces with a historical basis and some suspense.

On this first volume, which takes place at the end of Edward Bach’s life, we contemplate the recreation of how the birth of the flower system later known as “Bach flower remedies” causes endless conflicts to his creator, Edward Bach, because of the context around him in 1936.

Our only wish is that you enjoy it and learn, or maybe the other way round...
