The Unfinished Ballad Lynn Perry

Two people have been joined together for just less than a year. They share the same catastrophes, loneliness, loss, and even know each other...and yet they have never met. One fatal night changed their lives forever, linking them in a way two people are seldom linked and you never thought imaginable. In a single night Jeff lost everything important to him. The tragedy made him quiet, reserved, he kept to himself and his music, appearing suicidal to the outside world. He removed himself from the public eye. He knew though that his life would be changing soon...he knew she was coming and that all would be great again. On that same tragic night, Lynna was scarred, for what would seem like an eternity. She became afraid of what people might think or say, so she hid, staying away from people. There was no hint as to the flip her life was about to make, and definitely no way to stop it. Their entangled lives slowly unravel themselves, throwing evils at them from all directions. Just when everything has happened you thought could happen, life seems to uncover more surprises for these two estranged people. Though surrounded by death, harm, deceit and betrayal, Jeff and Lynna still manage to steal away those happy moments they so desperately need. This is a story about tragedy and love, sacrifice and love, music and love and above all...soul mates and their unconditional, undying love.
