Deep down, we all want to know more. There are questions we've been asking for years. Maybe we can't find the words. Maybe when we did find them we were embarrassed to bring it up because they seemed so basic. Or we couldn't find answers that satisfied us. Who is God? Why does evil exist? Is this God's plan for me? What is the Church? The list is long and many of us are tired of the same old answers. We want something deeper. Enter: theology. Since the beginning of time humans have been seeking answers to life's most challenging questions. This book aims to share some of what we have learned in a simple language. This is stuff you deserve to know. This is the study of God.
