The Secret Adventures of Sherlock Holmes: Tranche 1 Darryl Webber, Duncan Wood

The Secret Adventures of Sherlock Holmes are cases investigated by the great consulting detective that have never been seen by the public before. Kept secret by Holmes's friend and colleague Dr Watson during his lifetime, these cases were considered too contentious to be published at the time as they dealt with matters of state, international affairs and other sensitive issues.

Discovered in a packet of documents sealed by Dr Watson many decades ago, these intriguing chronicles have been brought to light by Duncan Wood and Darryl Webber who believe they further enhance the great detective's reputation while revealing some of the important and outlandish events he was involved in. Messrs Wood and Webber sincerely hope the reader finds their love of Holmes and his world rekindled by these 'new' cases.

For those of us that hold Holmes and Watson dear to our hearts, the game is always afoot...
