The Stuntman (Hollywood After Dark) (Volume 2) Maggie Carpenter

Though she has been in a relationship with a Dominant more than once, Belinda has learned the term, Dominant, is a generic label, and she aches for the real thing; a man who is comfortable in his own skin and won't hesitate to take her in hand. When Blake Berenson comes into her life, she believes her prayers have been answered. When Blake tells her he is a stuntman her heart sinks. Having been a nurse in a trauma center for several years, the sight of broken bones and bloody injuries is becoming too much, but in spite of her misgivings, the spark between them fiercely crackles, and she quickly finds herself over Blake's knee. He is everything she has dreamed of, and she falls hard for the handsome daredevil. One night she takes care of famous screenwriter who has been in a major car accident. When his private secretary, a stern, officious man, asks her to be the patient's private nurse she is tempted to accept, but Blake, having heard scary rumors about the writer and his palatial mansion in the hills above Malibu, is firmly against it. Belinda is torn. Will Belinda defy Blake, the Dominant she's crazy about who doesn't hesitate to spank her when he thinks she needs it, who fills her nights with blindfolds and salacious play, taking her to spine-tingling heights of passion? Will she risk all she has with her hunky, amorous stuntman for a stranger? And what about Blake? Will he put his foot down, or will he use his strength, his cunning and his special skills to help her?
